Richard's Reflections

Focus on the Work at Hand

If you have never read or if it's been a while, take time to read the book of Nehemiah. Great book which will both encourage and bless you as you walk with and work for our great God!

One truth taught in the book teaches us that while Nehemiah and his workers were re-building the wall around Jerusalem, their enemies came to speak evil of them. "Sanballat was very angry when he learned that we were rebuilding the wall. He flew into a rage, and insulted and mocked us and laughed at us, and so did his friends and the Samaritan army officers" (Nehemiah 4:1-2). The purpose of their words was to derail the work that these people were doing for God. Nehemiah's response was to pray to God and the work continued. Later the enemies wanted to meet with Nehemiah, he refused. They sent the same message four times requesting a meeting and also brought a threatening letter but Nehemiah knew they only wanted to take his life in hopes of ending the work of rebuilding the wall. But Nehemiah told them, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome....." (Nehemiah 4:14)

We must have the same attitude. There will always be people who want to criticize our work for God. They'll speak untruths as truth, all with the desire to slow the work. One of my favorite things to say is, "We are not stopping the train for barking dogs." The work we have before us is too important – the souls of people are worth more to us than trying to answer all the naysayers. The devil tried to derail Jesus in His personal ministry (Matthew 4) and he continues to try the same with us.

The answer is to keep our eyes on Jesus and focus on the work at hand. May God be glorified.

God is Good All The Time!
Richard

HUDDLES

Huddles is off to a great start on Wednesday nights. Huddles is our small group program for students at Westwood. On Wednesday nights, we meet in the teen room at 7:00 to allow us plenty of time in our groups. We start off with a song and an introduction for our topic that night. Then, our students split up into groups that we call HUD-DLES. Each huddle has adult leaders called coaches that lead the group. These coaches help facilitate the conversation for the night and spend time getting to know students. I am so excited to see HUDDLES continue to grow and develop at Westwood. HUDDLES allow our adult "coaches" to invest in the lives of students. Please say a prayer this week for our youth group and that God will continue to help our students grow and become mature disciples of Christ.

Eben's Essentials

Thanks for reading the first line of my new column. I invite you to read on. Hopefully, there will be some interesting tidbits this week and every week.

All of us, I think, are intrigued and tantalized by the prospect of success in life. Various people have various ideas of its meaning. Even as Christians, we can have varying perceptions of what the term signifies.

Recently, I read an anonymous poem that listed some behaviors the author though constituted success. The following points were included: Success is cheering other people's ways, silence when your speech would hurt, politeness when your neighbor is curt, deafness when the scandal flows, sympathy with others' woes, loyalty when duty calls, courage when disaster falls, patience when the hours are long, and in doing just the best you can.

I'm reminded of the Bible's teaching in 1 Corinthians 10, that the battle we are all fighting is on the spiritual level and we fight to capture every thought until it acknowledges the authority of Christ.

Richard O'Connor will be teaching a class on "Enriching our Marriages" starting Wednesday, Feb. 1st. The class will run during the month of February. It will be for marriages at any stage, for those considering marriage, or for those who simply want to encourage others in their marriage. While attending this class, you will go straight to the classroom at 7pm. If you would like to participate and have not signed up, please contact Richard.

Although today is the 5th Sunday of the month, we will have our Life Group meetings as usual.

DIRECTORY SIGN-UPS: We are continuing sign-ups for our new Attendance Pictorial Directory. There are sign-up sheets on the tables in the hallways on each side of the auditorium for you to make your portrait appointment. You may also sign-up on our website, or call the church office to schedule your appointment. We would like 100% participation. The directory is such a great tool to help all of us put faces with names, and to get more familiar with each other as a church family.
