THANK YOU! We truly appreciated the prayers, calls, and cards during the recent loss of my brother. The monetary donation to the food pantry was most appropriate. Thank you all so much for continuing to support us. Thank you, Carson & Sandra Malone

To Young Mothers at Westwood from an Older Mother

We older mothers see you young mothers and we remember. We remember the squirmly toddler in our laps. We remember the sippy cup dropping loudly to the floor. We remember the embarrassment when the five year old spills an entire box of crayons that roll halfway to the front podium.

We admire you and thank you for bringing your children to church. We know that you must love God and see the importance of bringing up your children "in the church".

Those baby noises—even the crying—are music to our ears because we remember.

Westwood is blessed to have many young families. There are at least 40 young mothers (young being under age 50) who attend services at Westwood. And so many of you serve our congregation in various ways—teaching, staffing the nursery, preparing food for the sick and bereaved, participating in Life Groups, and much more. We appreciate you.

Happy Mother's Day and thank you. You make us smile because we remember.

Carol Chambers
