Richard's Reflections

We have some important dates coming up concerning our mission efforts here at Westwood for 2018. Please pray about each opportunity and help where you can. We have 21 of our Westwood family heading to Honduras this summer and others going to Mexico. So we have many good areas where we can be of help in spreading the love of Jesus.

Today after Bible Class

Everyone going to Honduras meet in the Teen Room for a few minutes.

Wednesday, February 14, 5:45 pm Gym

Special Mission Kitchen Valentine's Dinner.

We would love for everyone to come and have a great meal (fish, shrimp, chicken, etc.) and help our missionaries from here at WW make their trips. Call the church office or tell Richard or Kim that you are coming so we can plan appropriately for food.

Sunday, March 4

All of our contribution on this Sunday (3/4), that exceeds our budget, will go to missions for 2018. Please be praying about your gift and give with a generous, grateful and cheerful heart! Thanks in advance for helping where and when you can!

God is Good!!

Eben's Essentials

Folks who want to try out for a sports team or a musical organization prepare themselves by practicing. It's a seemingly thankless task. They won't have cheerleaders to applaud them during a long hard drill. Whether or not they make the team or secure a position in the orchestra, they gain the rewards of perseverance, ability to delay gratification, and enhanced skills.

The same principle can be applied to the things you do for others. "Thank you's" are delayed or missing when you care for the daily needs of an infant. Elderly relatives or patients may forget to express gratitude for services rendered. Perhaps no one seems to notice how clean you keep the house, or that you are the one who tidies up the workplace break room. Maybe no one sees you get out of your car to remove road debris, or say a kind word to a crabby neighbor, or give a patient smile to an overbearing relative. But God, who is everywhere, sees. He provides rewards – not the least of which is the dignity of having done the right thing.

Some people may say to you, "No one cares how hard you work on behalf of others." But God says, "I see, and I will reward you." (Luke 6:35)

Karley's Kids

Event: Wednesday, February 14th, 5:45- Sweetheart Mission Kitchen! Children of Westwood, we need your help in making this Mission Kitchen a special occasion for Valentine's Day. Come ready to provide service and entertainment to our guests as they enjoy a special meal where proceeds will benefit our Mission efforts. If you have a song, poem, or something lovely to share, let Karley know or sign up in the hall! All kids are asked to help serve this night and sing a song together. Please wear pink or red and bring an apron if you have one.

Today's Wonders will come from Mark 5. We will cover how Jesus heals Jairus's daughter. God loves our families so we need to show love and respect to our families too. We will also cover Colossians 3: 12-14, "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity."

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

At Sunday School they were teaching how God created everything, including human beings. Little Johnny seemed especially intent when they told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs.

Later in the week his mother noticed him lying down as though he were ill, and she asked, "Johnny, what is the matter?"

Little Johnny responded, "I have pain in my side. I think I'm going to have a wife."
