Richard's Reflections

Survey...

As was mentioned last week, our space problems are evident and we want to be welcoming to all that enter our doors. In looking at solutions to this "good problem" our shepherds want to know your opinions and thoughts on this issue. At the end of our worship service today you will be given a survey. The options that are being considered at this time are as follows:

- ◆ Two worship services. The plan would be to have a worship service at 8:00 a.m., Bible Class at 9:30 and a second worship at 10:30 a.m.. That allows a 30 minute coffee/fellowship time between the first worship and Bible class. This plan will help to alleviate our parking problems.
- ◆ Live streaming worship to the room that is currently my Sunday morning Bible class room. This means that everything that is happening in the auditorium would be seen on large TV monitors and the PowerPoint would be seen on a separate monitor. The Lord's Supper would be served as usual in that room. This room would seat approximately 100 people. This option will require that we do something to alleviate parking problems.

Please consider these options and be ready to complete the survey at the end of worship this morning.

Thanks for your cooperation and support!

God is Good
Richard

Eben's Essentials

"I'm the boss of my own life" is the mantra the world shouts and whispers to us. The Christian faith says: "One day, every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord." Self-help books fill much of the shelf space in bookstores. People want to know how to control their lives.

Jesus came to serve people. He served in practical ways through His teaching and healing. He served in spiritual ways through His compassion and forgiveness. As the risen Christ, He continues to serve through the ministry of His church and His intercession on behalf of His people.

His followers have His example to emulate. It's wise to give control of your life to Him. Use the perspective He has provided you to discern those things He has put under your control and those things He has retained under His control. Take full advantage of His gifts by developing your talents and skills to the glory of God. In all things remember who you are - a beloved servant of the One who has first served you.

You will not go wrong by reminding yourself daily of the admonition recorded in James 4:7, "Submit yourselves therefore to God."

That power is the same as the mighty strength he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come."

I am so grateful and will forever hold these memories in my heart. Thank you again.*
