Richard's Reflections

Homecoming

Homecoming means a lot of different things to people. For the family patiently and nervously awaiting the safe return of a loved one from war, the homecoming is filled with relief, tears of joy and happiness. The homecomings we experience through family reunions are all filled with gladness over sharing time with those we love but see all too infrequently. And for parents of a college student who lives on campus, possibly hundreds of miles away, those homecomings are met with the pure delight of sharing time with one we miss!

As great and joyous as those occasions are, there are no greater homecomings than those which are spiritual in nature. The knowledge of knowing we, as Christians, are one day going home to the Father in the greatest of homecomings, brings peace to our hearts and minds (1 John 5:13; John 14:1-3).

But while we are here on earth, the closest homecomings to heaven, center around time spent with our church family. Every Sunday we meet together in a sort of "family reunion" as we fellowship with God and each other. But also as we have our annual Homecoming service it gives us a chance to see those who moved away come home again. Many of those former members of Westwood have made an indelible impression on our church family and us personally. They have enriched our lives, our community, and the rich history of the Westwood Church of Christ.

We are grateful to all those who have come home today! You bless us with your presence and we are grateful for your faith and friendship!

God is Good
Richard

Eben's Essentials

Perhaps the most significant question to ever enter the minds of human beings is, "What think ye of Christ?" Let's ask several people that momentous question.

How did the Pharisees respond?" This man receiveth sinners." What an accusation to make against Jesus! If He had not, what would have become of us? How did Caiphas, the Jewish chief priest, answer the question? "He hath spoken blasphemy," said Caiphas. "He claimed to be God." Now let's ask Pilate. "I find no fault in Him," said Pilate. In fact, Pilate's wife warned him to have nothing to do with that just man because she had a disturbing dream about Him. Nevertheless, Pilate finally conceded to the mob. What about the centurion who stood on guard beneath the cross? "Truly, this was the Son of God!" We might go to the very devils themselves and ask them. In the gospel of Mark we have the unclean spirit crying, "Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God." John the Baptist gave his answer by proclaiming, "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world!"

But the truth is that the question, "What think ye of Christ?" must be personally answered by each one of us. One more witness gave His supreme testimony on the mount of transfiguration. A voice came down from above saying, "This is my beloved Son; hear Him."
