Richard's Reflections

Added, Joined and Placing Membership

I don't know where all the terms we use in church had their origination, but I do know that for some it wasn't the Bible. One of those phrases is "placing membership". The thought here is someone who is a Christian wants to be recognized as a member of a church, like here at Westwood, so we say, "they placed membership with us." Nothing wrong with the idea...it's just funny how we use that term and not the Biblical term "join" for the same thing. Think about this, Paul, after becoming a Christian came back to Jerusalem and in Acts 9:26, "tried to join the disciples." Paul just wanted to be a part of that group—so he sought to "join" them. As a Christian today, you can do the same thing here at Westwood. You can "join" us in the journey for Christ. And believe me, you will receive a better reception here than Paul did in Jerusalem (9:26).

Now another Bible phrase is "added to the church" - and this is something only God can do! In Acts 2, when people heard the good news of Jesus preached, and believed it (vv.22-24;37), they turned from their sin in repentance, were baptized and were immediately blessed with the forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit (v.38). The Bible then says that these people and others who would do the same, were "added to the church by the Lord" (v.47).

So as a Christian today we would encourage you, if you haven't already done so, to join the family here at Westwood! And if you've never accepted Christ, do what those people did in Acts 2, and you can know for sure, that the Lord Himself will add you to His kingdom!!

Let us know how we can help you today!!

God is Good!

Eben's Essentials

C. S. Lewis argued effectively for the truth of the Christian faith by first asking: Who is Christ? He answered the question by stating that Christ claimed to be God (e.g., John 14:9). Lewis then reasoned that Jesus was either telling the truth, or He was insane, or He was a liar. Lewis insisted Christ was not insane. He was not a liar. Therefore, His claims must be the truth.

Was Jesus emotionally disturbed? Most of us feel deeply our own finitude and fallibility. Did Christ experience delusions of grandeur? The answer is a clear no. His moral teachings are the soul of common sense and reasonableness. If Christ was deluded about His relation to God, how was it possible that His doctrine of God has been judged, by common consent, the highest conception of God in religious history? How could He be so wonderfully wise about God's nature? Was Jesus a liar? How could the author of the Sermon on the Mount and the Parable of the Good Samaritan be a base deceiver? How could the founder of the most moral religion in history be a liar?

We have to make a choice! If Christ made claims and they were false, He either knew they were false and was a liar, or He thought they were true and was deranged. Like C.S. Lewis, we have good reasons for believing Christ's claims are true.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

A store manager in Texas overheard a clerk saying to a customer, "No, ma'am, we haven't had any for some weeks now, and it doesn't look as if we'll be getting any soon."

Alarmed by what was being said, the manager rushed over to the customer who was walking out the door and said, "That isn't true, ma'am. Of course, we'll have some soon. In fact, we placed an order for it a couple of weeks ago."

Then the manager drew the clerk aside and growled, "Never, never, never say we don't have something. If we don't have it, say we ordered it and it's on its way. Now, what was it she wanted?"

The clerk smiled and said, "Rain."
