Richard's Reflections

Distractions, #1

Many times distractions hinder our walk with and work for God. Luke tells us about a woman who faced such a problem: "As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him. She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said. But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made" (Luke 10:38-40).

There is no doubt that Martha was a woman with a good heart and industrious spirit. She would be one of the hardest working members of a church. She would be ready at a moment's notice to tackle any and all good works! But Jesus told her that she was overlooking the best things...because she was distracted by good things. "Martha, Martha...you are worried and upset about many things, but only one thing is needed. Mary has chosen what is better..." (10:41-42). Mary had chosen "what is better", but what was that? You see as much as Martha was distracted by her "much serving", Mary was focused on Jesus!

Jesus did not correct Martha because she was lazy, lukewarm or indifferent. He corrected her because her industry had distracted her from the singular goal the Father has for each of us, "Fix your eyes on Jesus" (Hebrews 12:2).

For the next few weeks we want to study, from the book of Nehemiah, how to overcome distractions in our lives. I believe it will help us all to focus more on the work of the Lord!

God is Good!
Richard

Travis' Teens

Today we will have a calendar meeting for all the upcoming events in the Summer of 2019. We would love for parents and teens to attend. This meeting will take place right after class in the teen room.

Come watch the Big Game with us! Come hangout in the teen room from 5:00pm tonight until the end of the game. Please bring a can food item to help stock our pantry. We are encouraging parents and teens to attend. Please bring a finger food item with you or a dessert! Pizza and drinks will be provided.

Eben's Essentials

The big issue in life is the problem of sin. I believe that the real cause of unbelief is not the absence of evidence (the evidence is sufficient) but the presence of sin. I think that many unbelievers have an ethical and moral prejudice when they choose a philosophy of life. As someone has said, "a sinner has a sinner's ax to grind." Writer Aldous Huxley was being honest when he wrote, "The liberation we desired was simultaneously liberation from a certain political and economic system and liberation from a certain system of morality. We objected to the morality because it interfered with our sexual freedom." Sigmund Freud declared that belief in God is a widespread neurosis. It might as well be argued that unbelief is a widespread escape mechanism.

No person is without guilt. Alleviating the sense of guilt is a daily problem. The Christian is convinced that both his sin and his guilt are taken away when he believes in Christ and obeys the gospel. The sinner on the other hand, can easily choose to select a theory that makes sin a function of something other than his own will.

The fact is, if you can face the truth that you are responsible for your own sins, then Jesus Christ can remove both sin and guilt from you (Romans 6:23).

Karley's Kids

WE WILL BE USING FABRIC PAINT so please either have your child wear something OR BRING SOMETHING you don't mind them getting paint on (forever).
