Richard's Reflections

Easter Sunday

Next Sunday is Easter and with Easter comes one of, if not our largest attendance day of the year. Which means we ought to do everything we can to make our guests next week feel at home and give them good reason to come back.

A few things we all can do...

- Pray for our day together!
- Younger people, please park in the new available parking space next door at the brick company.
- 75 or so of us could worship in the chapel at 9:30 am as to free up space in the main auditorium for our guests.
- Greet everyone, especially those who aren't familiar to you.
- Share the space where you are sitting, if possible.
- DO NOT tell someone "You are sitting in my pew." You don't have a pew - so just sit wherever there is a space and be thankful for the guest who is in the spot you usually use.
- Help guests with children understand Wonders and help them find Sunday School classes.
- Invite adult guests to your Sunday School class.
- Be kind, courteous and SMILE as you welcome guests!

Guests will be coming on Easter Sunday because they want to honor the Resurrected Lord and we have a great opportunity to help them in that. We also have the opportunity to show them Christ in us by the way we welcome them and treat them while they are here. Thanks in advance for your help with this!

God is Good!
Richard

Eben's Essentials

There is the significant story of Jesus and the devil going toe to toe in a three round bout in the desert. It's found in Matthew 4:1-11 in the New Testament. Jesus spent forty days and nights in the wilderness without food.

During that time the devil came and said to Him, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread." Despite being very hungry, Jesus told him, "No! The Scriptures say, 'People do not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" Then the devil took Him to the highest point of the Temple in the holy city of Jerusalem and said, "If you are the Son of God, jump off! For the Scriptures say, 'He will order His angels to protect you....'" Jesus responded, "The Scriptures also say, 'You must not test the Lord your God.'" Next the devil took Him to the peak of a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. "I will give it all to you," he said, "If you will kneel down and worship me." "Get out of here, Satan," Jesus told him, "For the Scriptures say, 'You must worship the Lord your God and serve only Him.'" Then the devil went away.

Jesus and the devil confronted each other in the desert and Jesus won all three rounds. Jesus is not only the world champion, but also the champion of the universe. All power in heaven and on earth is His. Christ is in control – not the devil.
